The work on the tank of the Seco Pressed Brick Co was stopped last Friday, as the rain filled up the cut. The dam is 50 feet wide at the base, 600 feet long and 10 feet high in the middle. It is intended to build it up higher later as all the waste ground from uncovering the clay bed will be put up on the dam so as to get it out of the way. The water shed tributary to this tank covers an area of about 100 acres, mostly steep hill sides from which the rain water runs off nearly as fast as it falls, and as the underground is all clay the tank is expected to hold water like a jug. 12 to 15 teams, all from this neighborhood, were employed by the day in the work under foreman Jake Walter. The next thing the Company intends to do is the grading of the track from the depot to the clay hill.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO, Toledo, O. Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded if it does not do as we claim. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—the Rexall Store, Falkenberg & Martin.

Commissioner's Card.

The law makes it the duty of the Commissioner to look after the public roads and streets and to keep them in proper condition for travel. In performing this duty, I find that some people are using the public highways for a dumping ground for all sorts of rubbish. This is strictly against the law and parties guilty of such acts are subject to prosecution and I hereby warn everyone not to do so again. Observe the laws of your country and help your road commissioner, road-overseer and the hands that must work the same to maintain good roads.

Respectfully submitted,

B. H. BRUCKS,
Commissioner Precinct 1, Medina Co.

Statue to Philip Sidney.

The name of Sir Philip Sidney is, of course, held high in honor among Dutchmen, who cannot forget that when he died at Zutphen, in 1586, he was fighting in their cause against Spain. A committee has recently been formed at Zutphen to arrange for the erection of a statue to Sidney at that place, and subscriptions are appealed for not only in Holland but in Great Britain.

Prevention.

"Do you believe that music prevents crime?" "To a certain extent," replied Mr. Sinnick. "When a man keeps both hands and his breath busy with a cornet, you know he can't be picking pockets, attempting homicide or slandering his neighbors."

UNEARTHED WHALE'S BONES

Dredgers Lay Bare Skeleton of a Twenty-Footer—One Dredge Brings Up a Diamond.

In cutting away the bank of the creek a mile from the ocean on Hewlett's Bay, the New York Sun says, workmen employed on the dredger Florida came across the skeleton of a 20-foot whale 12 feet below the surface of the meadows. The men had secured the vertebrae and head and were digging for the rest of the frame when the storm put an end to operations.

The large suction pipe of the dredger has brought to light many articles, some of them valuable. Two weeks ago a diamond ring worth $100 was brought up. Just inside the suction pipe is a box which contains a magnet and all metal substances drop into the box, while the mud and dirt pass over it.

As the blessings of health and for tune have a beginning, so must they also find an end. Everything rises but to fall, and increases but to decay.—Sallust.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach.
Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

The Doctor's Question
Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.
Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.
Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Falkenberg & Martin.

Real Fire Water.
According to the London Chronicle, a peculiar drink is to be found on the west coast of Africa: "You take a wineglass and put in it a few drops from every bottle in the bar. Then you put a match to it—the mixture usually contains enough spirit to light—and gulp it down. This fire water possibly explains why so few West African officials live to see their pensions."

Never Out Of Work.
The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fag into mental power; curing Constipation, Headache, Chills, Dyspepsia, Malaria. Only 25c at W. H. Windrow's.

twelve hours. Farmers are all smiles, for this puts a fine season in the ground and will prove very beneficiary to the oats and pastures. It also put out some stock water. According to reports it amounted to one inch.

Mrs. J. B. Spettel of Bandera visited relatives and friends here Sunday and Monday.
Messrs. Nic. L. Tschirhart and A. E. Halbardier left Sunday on a business trip to the Alamo City.

Mrs. Caroline Williams, colored, died at her home here Sunday evening after a lingering illness and will be laid to rest this afternoon. Deceased leaves her grief-stricken husband, several children and a number of other relatives to mourn her demise. March 27.

Much Worse Things.
To be poor is not always pleasant, but worse things than that happen at sea. Small shoes are apt to pinch, but not if you have a small foot; if we have little means it will be well to have little desires. Poverty is no shame, but being discontented with it is. It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness. —Spurgeon.

Ragged wounds are painful and cause much annoyance. If not kept clean they fester and become running sores. Ballard's Snow Liniment is an antiseptic healing remedy for such cases. Apply it at night before going to bed and cover with a cotton cloth bandage. It heals in a few days. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Important Things of Life.
Holiness is an infinite compassion for others. Greatness is to take the common things of life and walk truly among them. Happiness is a great love and much serving.—Oliver Schreiner.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation gives it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

CURRENT VERSE.
The Horses of Indra.
Up from the green sea valleys
That the wild, white horses range,
Up from the ocean pastures
That the foam-steeds ravage and change,
The Storm-God gathers his cloud-herd
And drives them away at his will.
The wild white horses of Indra,
That have stooped and have drunk their fill.
He herds them up heaven's steep hollow
Aslope from the low, sea-marge,
And the sky is filled with their thunder
And the terror of their charge—
Is filled with the sweep of squadrons,
The shout of the Storm God's ire,
And hoofs that strike from the skyway
The spark of the levin fire.
Beneath them their white sea-brothers
Run raging with tangled mane,
To the call of the wild winds warning
Through the serried ranks of the rain.
But lo! in the east it is dawning,
And clear and blue is the sky,
And green and peaceful the sea-plain
When the storm-herds have swept by.
—Martha W. Austin, in Scribner's.

Not in Vain.
If I may help some burdened heart
His heavy load to bear;
If any little song of mine
May cheer a soul somewhere;
If I may lead some grieving one
To know that loss is gain,
Or bring some shadowed soul to light,
I shall not live in vain.

If I may help bewildered ones
To find life's grandest clue;
If I may steady faltering feet,
Or help some heart be true;
If I may bring a tender touch
To some lone couch of pain,
Or whisper words of love and strength,
I shall not live in vain.

If I may give disheartened ones
The impetus they need;
Or rescue the oppressed from hands
Of cruelty and greed;
If I may bring concord and love
Where strife and hatred reign,
Or be a friend to friendless ones
I shall not live in vain.
—Frank A. Breck, in Ram's Horn.

Sun Magic.
The mist wreaths curled and swirled o'er
The crests of the lilac hedges,
And the apple boughs were blown and
The cherry branches tossed;
And the roses seemed to grudge to open
Their crimson pledges,
And the silvery lances of rain slanted,
And then were lost.

The very visage of grief—tremulous, tearful, tragic;
Niche's look of woe—sorrow without alloy!
When, lo! a rift in the clouds, the glamour of gold sun magic,
And all the garden shone with the radiant face of joy!
—Clinton Scollard, in New York Sun.

The Modern Way.
I freighted them with hopes and fears
To sail across the foam,
And vainly have I waited since
To see my ships come home.

But, ah, my ships were far too light
For crests they had to brave,
Too deep the seas of destiny,
Too towering the wave.

And, oh, my ships drew too much draught
For waters that were charmed,
Too shallow was the stream of chance
To bear them on unharmed.

When seas are filled and streams are dug
My ships may safely float,
So I must wait till powers make
The tides to fit the boat.
—McLandburgh Wilson.

The First Kiss.
Dear, do you mind you of that glorious night,
Star-sown, in June, when we beneath the trees—
Far from the city's din—a gentle breeze
Cheering the silence—sat in long delight Near, near together? You were all in white.
Carnations in your hair; a bunch of these Scarlet and fragrant lay upon your knees;
Sheer joy thrilled in our hearts and filled them quite.

No wonder that our spirits, those sweet hours
Grew closer in communion, came to feel
How much without each other they should miss!
So, at the parting, as you gave the flowers,
Few words were spoken, but as if to seal
Vow unexpressed you gave me that first kiss.
—Carlo Benedetto.

Compensation.
Ruin! That's all tomorrow—
Ground in the dust! what then?
To crawl, to beg, to borrow?
Our lot. Well, wherefore sorrow?
Are we not God-made men?

Is Hope a gaud, all glitter?
Is Fate a common cheat?
No; any faith were fitter!
Think, if life's cup prove bitter,
How death will taste more sweet!
—Harry F. Bowling.

Thy Life.
Just live thy life in full content;
Do all thy best with what is sent.
Thou but receivest what was meant.
Just live thy life.

Just live thy life. Be not in fear,
The strength of wrong shall disappear.
And right is ever drawing near.
Just live thy life.

Just live thy life. Seem what thou art.
Nor from simplicity depart,
And peace shall come upon thy heart.
Just live thy life.
—J. L. Stockton.

Poverty.
"The people call him rich; his lands
Stretch very far and very wide;
They call him rich, yet where he stands
Ill-clad and bent and hollow-eyed.

"The people call him rich; his gold
Is piled in many a yellow heap,
But he is all alone, and old,
And when he dies no one will weep.

"They call him rich, but where he dwells
The floors are bare, the walls are bleak;
They call him rich; he buys and sells,
But no fond fingers stroke his cheek.

"They call him rich; he does not know
The happiness of standing where
Sweet winds across the meadows blow
And toss the verdant billows there.

"They call him rich, but he is blind
To beauties of the earth and sky;
Distrustful of all humankind,
They call him rich—I know not why."
—S. B. Kiser.

"Wise saws" do not always cut ice!

A Commercial Club is one of Hondo's crying needs!

He is your friend who shows himself friendly to your friends!

ONE man's advocacy of a thing is sufficient to provoke some other's enmity!

A proposition is usually hard to see through when there is nothing in it!

THE best missionary work a man ever did was to rid his own heart of guile!

THE grouchy grunts while the cheerful man does his stunt without taking thought of its difficulties!

ONE of the most wholesome lessons taught man in the school of experience is the realization that he is not the only pebble on the beach!

It begins to look like Diaz's regime in Mexico is near its close. Like many another great man, Diaz failed to secure his fame by retiring at the proper time.

CROP prospects have not been so favorable at this season of the year in several years and every line of business has already begun to feel the stimulus of better times.

JUDGING from reports from Austin political peace is coming in pieces.—Hondo Anvil Herald. Or rather, coming "to" pieces.—Nordheim View. And watch Colquitt hold the pieces.

SOME one has wisely advised not to get down in the mouth but just remember that Jonah came out all right. He might have added that one needn't get in a stew—for he is not the only oyster in it!

WHAT's the matter with Fletcher Davis? We miss his spicy editorials.—West Texas News. To miss one is to accord him the sincerest praise, and is some compensation for our limitations.

We hope those petulant pencil pushers who are poking their poniards at Colquitt's administration are enjoying it as that will be their only compensation. The public understands too well the animus of their animosity.

BROTHER Davis of the Hondo Anvil Herald must be taking a vacation. Not one editorial appeared in the last two issues. Davis is a good one but must be waiting for copy written elsewhere(?) which possibly has not arrived. Wake up you long hungry rascal we need you—Devine Reporter. Not taking a vacation, brother, but giving our readers one, and incidentally catching up with the copy written elsewhere and that has been arriving to the exclusion of our own copy. When our readers get tired of our accustomed editorial dope they make us too busy to dope it out. Ergo, its absence from recent issues of this rag of freedom. We were too busy to even extend you the glad hand at the proper time, but we are never too busy to help a friend when he really needs us. What can we do for you?

THAT is a miserably despicable nature that takes delight in bringing misery and suffering to the heart of another. All such natures when appraised at their true worth are loathed as something fit only to consort with devils—things of their own base level. Sorrows and sufferings enough do we bring to those around us through our sins of omission and commission, due to our inherent selfishness and the narrowness of our soul vision, without deliberately going out of our way to do another hurt. Thrice happy is he who, forgetting self and selfish desires, can go about doing good. Such a life radiates an atmosphere of happiness as the sun gives light, and paints rainbow tints of peace, of love, and of hope upon the darkest clouds that blacken the horizon of life. And such a life need not wait on larger opportunity. It is a large opportunity to try to live such a life.

Died.
 Mr. Lon Moore, an old pioneer citizen of Medina County, died at his home in Hondo Friday night of last week, March 24, 1911, at about nine o'clock. The remains were interred in the old cemetery Saturday by the side of those of his former wife, Rev. M. L. Darby, pastor of the local Methodist church, conducting the funeral. The deceased was born in Mississippi on June 4, 1844, and came to Texas at a very early age, settling in Medina County where he has since resided. He was twice married. The first marriage was to Miss Cynthia McCombs. To this union two children were born, Henry Moore and Mrs. Will Breiten. The second marriage was to Mrs. Sallie Simmons (nee Manning). One child, Mrs. A. L. Watkins of San Antonio, was born of this union. He was an ex-Confederate soldier and a former ranger. While in the ranger service he saw hard fighting against the Indians who then infested this section. Uncle Lon, as he was familiarly known to a great many, suffered a paralytic stroke several years ago which partially disabled one side of his body and incapacitated him for any kind of labor. Since that time the once strong man has presented a pathetic appearance in his helplessness. He has been as well as usual, however, up to Saturday night, but complaining about nine o'clock he went to bed. Calling his wife he asked for some medicine which he kept to rub his paralyzed side but when she got to his bedside with it he was dead, having thus passed away without a struggle. The Anvil Herald joins in sympathy for the bereaved companion and children.

Commercial Club Organized.
 A number of the business men of Hondo met at the court house Monday night, pursuant to call, and effected a temporary organization of a Commercial Club. Judge H. E. Haass was elected temporary chairman and J. G. Heyen temporary secretary. The object of a commercial club was explained by Messrs. Haass, Heyen and D. H. Fly, and it was the consensus of all present that Hondo needs and should have such an organization. It was thought best, however, to organize only temporarily, and, accordingly, Mr. Heyen was appointed a committee of one to interview the business men of the town and determine how much money can be secured for the maintenance of such an organization and to report at another meeting to be held at the court house next Tuesday night at which time it is expected to effect a permanent organization. It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance of the business men and all interested in the upbuilding of Hondo at that time, and that a strong and effective organization can be launched.

Mill President Got Skinned.
 Mr. ——— President of a cotton-mill at Union, S. C.,—he don't want to see his name in print—had two offers of 500 gallons of paint: $1.30 and $1.25. Took the $1.25; and got skinned. He'd have got three-quarters skinned if he'd taken the other.
 The $1.30 was full gallon; the $1.25 was 18 per cent short. The full measure paint was adulterated 40 per cent; the short-measure paint was adulterated 45 per cent, besides benzine in the oil, don't know how much.
 Devote lead-and-zinc wasn't sold in the town then.
 It don't pay to monkey with paint.
 Devote costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Boy Scouts Organize.
 Monday afternoon, March 27th, under the supervision of Rev. M. L. Darby, a few of the boys of Hondo met and organized a band of Scouts. The purpose of this organization is to improve the boys morally, mentally, socially and physically by providing and unifying wholesome instructions and harmless amusements for them. The motto of the band is: "Be sure you are right and then go ahead."
 The officers elected are: Clyde Holaway, President; Murphy Beal, First Vice-President; Hal Jones, Second Vice-President; Arthur Jungman, Third Vice-President; William Schmitt, Fourth Vice-President; Monroe Taylor and Osborne Chancey, Patrolmen; Willie Windrow, Secretary and Treasurer; Frank Jungman, Press Reporter; Willie Grell, Drummer; Joe Monkhouse, Reminder; John Mofield, Bugler.
 This is a commendable movement and the boys should be encouraged in their efforts to live up the purposes of the order.

 All precincts in the county are requested to be represented in the meeting.

Card of Thanks.
 We take this means of thanking the people of Hondo for their kindness and sympathy to us which they have manifested in so many ways in our sorrow, and assure one and all that the same will be gratefully remembered.
 Respectfully,
MRS. LON MOORE AND CHILDREN.
 Isaac Wilson has installed a Downie Double Acting Pump with a capacity of 150 gallons per minute on his new well. This pump will force the water into either the storage tank or the supply tank and thus doubles the capacity of the water works. Another water famine in Hondo now is 'scarcely probable with this capacity.

Questions Answered by Jas. Pluck OPTICIAN.

(Q.) Why is it that glasses are worn so much more now?
(A.) Years ago the science of optics was not understood as it is today. Only old people or those near-sighted wore glasses. Now we correct with lenses all errors of sight.
(Q.) Why is it that cheap glasses do not give satisfaction?
(A.) Cheap glasses are so faulty in construction and so poor in quality that they distort the vision and cause pain in the eyes.
(Q.) Can my headaches be relieved with glasses?
(A.) It can.
A personal visit will be necessary; let us talk it over. Eyes tested free.

Reiley Carle, a son of Louis Carle of D'Hanis, aged about 20 years, was severely burned by a gasoline explosion Monday about noon. It seems that the young man had some difficulty in getting a fire started in a gasoline range and poured too much gasoline in the "pan" and when it did catch fire it exploded and ignited his clothing. Medical attention was secured at once and the burns dressed. On Tuesday he was taken to a hospital in San Antonio, and at last report was progressing favorably towards recovery.

To Fold a Blanket.

Gillet to Peter Morville, or Peter Marrelle, or Peter Morrelle, dated January 24th, 1896; and that the only claim or title of the above mentioned defendants, or any of their heirs, to said land and premises would be by virtue of said patent and deeds.
